Lisa and Kim present:

Mark Twain's Diaries of Adam and Eve. Imagine being the first humans on the Earth. You find yourself in this beautiful garden. You also find yourself sharing these bucolic surroundings with another human being. The world's first couple learns about life, love, and living together in Lisa and Kim's adaptation of two of Twain's most famous works.

The Girls of Flight City by Lorraine Heath is a fascinating historical piece set in North Texas in 1941. Lisa and Kim "fly" into the story of Jessie Lovelace, a female aviator, and the members of the Royal Air Force who secretly trained in Terrell, TX before the U.S. entry into WWII.

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-time by Mark Haddon. Filled with unexpected humor and heartfelt drama, this story takes you inside the mind of a neuro-divergent young man on the hunt to solve an important mystery. Christopher Boone makes a solo trip to London and confides in his teacher Siobhan while on his quest to solve the suspicious death of a neighbor's dog.

A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles was one of Lisa's favorite reads of 2018. In 1922, Count Alexander Rostov found himself on the wrong end of the Bolshevik revolution. This educated, witty aristocrat was confined to house arrest in the Metropol Hotel across the street from the Kremlin. His world is now an attic room during some of the most tumultuous decades in Russian history. During this incarceration, he meets an actress, a shrewd politico, and a temperamental chef. Then fate puts the life of a precocious young girl in his hands. It cast a spell on Lisa as she read it. It will own you when you hear it.

The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society by Mary Ann Shaffer and Annie Barrows tells the World War II tale of a unique book club formed in a spur-of-the-moment alibi to protect its members from the German invaders. Told through a series of letters the story reveals a remarkable correspondence between an author and the residents of this strategically important but unassuming island in the English Channel. Once the writer sets foot on Guernsey, her discoveries will change her forever.

When Lisa flies solo:

With Mama Makes Up Her Mind and Other Dangers of Southern Living, Lisa brings Bailey White's hilarious short essays to life. In these stories Lisa introduces you to Bailey's loopy family, each of whom will thoroughly charm you. Aunt Belle has a pet alligator, Uncle Jimbuddy has a bad habit of losing pieces of himself. And of course, Mama, who will introduce you to a roadhouse so raunchy it scared Ernest Hemingway or a bed that has a bad habit of folding up on people while they sleep. You will never think of panty hose without smiling after you see Lisa's presentation.

Bailey White is back by popular demand in Mama Revisited. In this program, Lisa performs Bailey's hysterical short stories and observations on southern living from several sources, including Sleeping at the Starlite Motel and Nothing with Strings. If you have ever found yourself as the "little lady" trying to buy a car, you will remember this delightful story.
